UNIVERSITY HONORS PRINCESS—Princess Elizabeth receives an honorary degree (Doctor of Law) from her great-uncle, the Earl of Athlone, Chancellor of the University of London, which confers honorary degrees upon the Princess and the Duke of Edinburgh at a recent ceremony.

FLYER RELIEF GOODS TO ITALY—This RCAF crew flew low half way across the world to the food-starved Po Valley in Italy to deliver 10 tons of Canadian Red Cross supplies. The cargo, which consisted of powdered milk, tinned meat, blankets, clothing and many other badly needed supplies, represented a 25-thousand-dollar contribution by the people of Canada. At Malpensa airport, near Milan, Italy, from where the cargo was rushed to the food area, are: Flying Officer A. F. Heasman and Pilot-Lieut. G. M. Spurr, both of Ottawa; Sergeant W. G. Barn of Sudbury, Ont.; Sgt. W. L. O'Far of Ross, Ont.; Flying Officer J. Wilson of Dunville, P.E.I.; Flight-Lieut. E. J. Brown of Borden, Ont.—Central Press Canadian.

SOMETHING NEW IN HELICOPTERS—Here's a view of the experiment. A U.S. navy helicopter, H-25, during its first successful flight at Washington, D.C. The aircraft is powered by a 375-horsepower gas turbine and unlike the piston engine, the turbine requires neither cooling fan nor centrifugal clutch. It can operate on low-grade fuels such as kerosene or on high octane gasoline.—Central Press Canadian.

GETS RUG, PLUS $50 FOR BAGGING WOLF—Bill Menzies of Oshawa, Ont., not only will collect $50 bounty for shooting this timber wolf, but he'll have a rug to present to his wife. Bill shot the wolf four miles from the centre of Oshawa after it had been flushed by his hound, Prince. It was the first wolf seen in this industrial area in the memory of residents.—Central Press Canadian.

TURKISH VERSION OF BLARNEY STONE—With a name like his, U.S. Congressman Sylvester O'Toole should be casting his votes at Ireland's famed Blarney Stone. Instead he is shown with closed eyes and thumb stuck in the famous wishing hole at Instantani's Saint Sophia church. Legend has it that a snake came out of this hole in 470 A.D. and bit Byzantine Emperor Constantine's nose and hair, causing his death. People have been wishing here for centuries.—Central Press Canadian.

LOOK FRETTER FOR THE CAMERA—A white-clothed North Korean corporal of the guard at Panmunjom takes time out to hold up the rata punch of a Red sentry standing guard at the observation all. The corporal was probably looking for marks for medals.—Central Press Canadian.

ORPHANED—Led to safety by his grandparents when his home in Hiroshima, Ont., caught fire, Peter Amos, 6, has not yet comprehended that his mother and father will not be with him at Christmas. They stayed in their third-floor apartment to collect some of their personal possessions and perished. Peter, who made consolation in the presence of his dog, Skipper, is concerned about the loss of presents which he intended to give to other children.—Central Press Canadian.

EARLY BIRDS—Jacques Carbonneau, (left), Quebec City and Claude Richer, (right), Ottawa, are a couple of early birds leaving for the Olympic Games which open at Oslo February 14. Here they are boarding their plane for Sweden where they will do some preliminary training before going on to Norway. Both boys are cross-country runners. They sport the new Canadian Olympic team crest.

VICTIMS OF VOLCANIC FURY—Burned by hot ashes from the eruption of Hibok Hibok volcano in the Philippines early in December, old and young alike crowded into a temporary hospital at Makiling on the Island of Oahu for treatment. These first ground pictures from the area were delayed when evacuation of the island was interrupted by high seas and heavy rain that followed a typhoon.

WORLD ISSUES SETTLED IN THIS BLEAK SETTING—Here's a view of the Panmunjom site under a thick shawl as Red delegates treat for the conference deadline. At left, Major-General Lee Sang Cho and Lt-Col. Tan Chong Wun head for discussion on prisoner exchange while Gen. Huhk Pang and Col. Chang Han enter the tent at the right to talk about truce supervision. An unidentified U.S. soldier is on top of the tent at right repairing the stove pipe. The Communists have agreed to exchange prisoner lists.—Central Press Canadian.

4,000-TON GRAIN CARRIER LAUNCHED AT MIDLAND—Spot of comely entered into christening ceremony of the James Norris, 4,000-ton grain carrier, when Mrs. Norris, wife of Chicago grain magnate for whom it is named, attempted to swing the traditional bottle of champagne against the bow, but missed when it slipped. Some 10,000 persons at Midland, Ont., watched launching of vessel, largest grain carrier to be built at Midland shipyards. The measure 364 feet long and 35 feet deep, drawing 24 feet of water at full load.—Central Press Canadian.

HEROIC GLOUCESTERS RETURN TO BRITAIN—Remnants of the Gloucester Regiment, whose heroism in Korea has made a military legend, are now back in Britain. Captain Harvey, who led the 40 survivors from Hill 235, now known as Gloucester Hill, is shown on left of other officers of the regiment. The 40 soldiers were all that were left of the unit's fighting strength.—Central Press Canadian.

ANYONE WANT SNOW? ONTARIO, QUEBEC WANT TO EXPORT IT—Eight inches of snow fall over southern Ontario and Quebec bringing air and highway travel almost to a halt, isolating villages and farmhouses, causing thousands of city dwellers to be absent from work. The Montreal meteorologist added to his troubles by running out of gasoline.—Central Press Canadian.

There are 225 teachers of law in Canada.

Flax production in Canada in 1951 is estimated at 9,900,000 bushels, or about twice that of 1950. The prairie province's production in 1951 is placed at 8,400,000 bushels.

His work at the time attracted a great deal of public attention and acclaim. It also led to still further investigations conducted by other Congressional committees, which have exposed many questionable acts, and serious corruption in some cases, on the part of several dozen officials in the Treasury and Justice Departments.

Only such a background of events could produce the possibility of Senator Kefauver becoming a serious contender for the presidency. His primary stock in trade is as a foe of crime and a champion of righteousness. Except for the way in which those of his qualities have been dramatized he would have little national reputation, since he is only serving his first term in the Senate, and had little previous fame other than that earned locally for smashing the "Crump machine" which ruled politically in Memphis for many decades.

In ordinary circumstances, therefore, Sen. Kefauver would stand little chance of winning his Party's nomination. If domestic issues become dominant in the month ahead, however, the need increases to press an official clean-up—to do it with great publicity—and to have it headed by a striking figure symbolizing virtue and rectitude, he could develop strong support before nominating day late in 1952.

Local and District

Mrs. E. A. (Tommy) Thompson is visiting. Delia, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Campbell.

Chas. Lawrence and Chas. B. Hamilton were Calgary visitors the forepart of last week.

Mrs. Lorna Hoover, of Calgary, spent the week end at the farm home of her parents.

Ronald Hands, of General F. Leconte at Stony Plain, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hands, over the week end.

W. D. Fitzsimmons, accompanied by M. H. Ballif left by car on Sunday for a business trip to Calgary.

Born, in Hanna hospital, on Saturday, January 12th, 1952, to Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stubbs, of Delia, twins sons.

F. W. Bixby, who farmed in the Hanthilla district, passed away last week, the funeral taking place this Tuesday at Delia United Church.

The death of Alex. Aitken in Calgary was reported last week end. The deceased, who had farmed in the Sentinel Hill district, had been in poor health for some time.

A swirling playground for the night to represent the local zone was held in Delia by the Canadian Legion on Sunday. The results were one win and one loss for each of the rinks—Delia, Drumheller and Morris. This necessitates further play, which will take place in Drumheller next Sunday.

There was a brief break in the cold weather on Sunday last. Toward evening, however, the wind changed and a storm blew up from the northeast, causing drifting snow which lasted over Monday. Temperatures fell, and on Tuesday 22 below zero was registered. Overnight the cold deepened, the reading being 26 below early on Wednesday when skies had cleared and there was bright sunshine.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my many friends in Delia for the beautiful bouquet of flowers you sent to me on the occasion of my journey to England. I appreciate them and the goodwill of the people who sent them. On my return from England, I hope to see you all again.

Betty Church.

Lala Louie, over Hauff, has been called the "most beautiful single woman in North America."

Alberta's Poultry Marketing

Alberta has acquired a reputation for quality poultry products. The provincial department of agriculture advises that only well finished birds should be marketed. If this regulation is to be maintained, right now, too many unadorned birds are getting to market.
